General terms and conditions

1. Bobjectief Photography specialises in taking photographs and video recordings for individuals, families, associations and companies.
2. We always work by appointment and prior quotation.
3. The photographer can come to an agreed location, but you are also welcome at his Image22 photo studio in Turnhout.
4. Examples of collaboration include: ID photos, individual photo shoots, family photo sessions, portfolio development, fashion photography, dance photography, reports of parties, weddings, performances, product photography, multicam video clips, interviews, instructional videos and more.
5. Results are available within a reasonable period of time, usually two weeks after the shoot is finished.
6. The job is paid for before delivery of the results.
7. The results are transferred to the client in digital form via an email with download link.
8. If desired, Bobjectief Photography will make the results available online in a photo gallery that can be password protected upon request.
9. Without the explicit consent of the client, I do not publish anything, either on social media or elsewhere.
10. More information and indicative rates are available on the website.
